MANUAL

OF THE

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

HISTORY.

In 1778, that portion of the town of Wrentham called the "Western Precinct" obtained an act of incorporation under the name of Franklin.

Forty years prior to this act, Feb. 16, 1738, this Church was organized as "The Second Church in Wrentham." The following account of its formation is given in the Church records: —

"The 16th of February, 1738, was kept as a day of solemn fasting and prayer in the Second Precinct in Wrentham, to implore the blessing of God, and his direction, in the settling of a Church, and in order to the calling and settling of a gospel minister in said place. On said day, the brethren of the Church whose names are subscribed to the Covenant were gathered into a Church estate.

"The most of those brethren had a letter of dismission from the First Church in Wrentham, in order for their embodying into a Church. Then in a large assembly the Covenant was read; and the Rev. Mr. Baxter of Medfield, Mass., who assisted in that affair as moderator, desired the brethren to signify their consent to it by the lifting up the hand, which they accordingly did. He then declared them to be a Church of our Lord Jesus Christ."

"A copy of the Covenant which those signed, and to which they consented by whom this Church was first formed; who esteem themselves a Congregational Church: —

"We, who through the wonderful goodness and mercy of God have a comfortable prospect of the settlement of the ordinances of Christ among us, do accordingly enter into a Church estate; and in the fear of God, and under a humbling sense of our unworthiness to transact with the glorious God, and with a humble dependence on the grace of God, covenant with God and with one another as followeth, viz.: —

"1. First of all, we do solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for our portion and chief good, and give up ourselves, bodies and souls, to him, to be his servants, promising, by his aid and assistance, to love him, fear him, trust in him, and yield obedience to him in all things, all the days of our lives.

"2. Whereas the Son of God in our nature is exalted as a Prince and a Saviour, the only Mediator of the new covenant and means of coming unto God, we do therefore, through grace, accept of him according to the tenor of the gospel offer; that is to say, as the Prophet, Priest, and King of our immortal souls, purposing and promising to attend his teaching by his word and Spirit, to lean upon his merits and intercession with the Father, as the only way for the obtainment of the pardon of our sins, the favor of God, and continuance therein, and, finally, the subduing of all our enemies, and working all his works in us and for us.

"3. And whereas there are different apprehensions in the minds of great and wise men, even in the doctrinals of religion, we do declare our consent to the New England Confession of Faith, apprehending, in our judgment and conscience, that it is agreeable to the Holy Scriptures.

"4. Whereas God has promised to be a God unto his people and their children after them, we do therefore dedicate our children to the service of God in Jesus Christ, promising that we will seasonably bring those of them that are unbaptized to Jesus Christ in the ordinance of baptism, and, as they grow unto years of understanding, instruct them in the nature, use, and end of that ordinance, and in the principles of the Christian religion (so far as need is); that we will set good examples of piety, righteousness, and sobriety before them, restrain them as we are able from being carried away with the temptations of their age and time, endeavor that they may be prepared for the enjoyment of Christ in all his ordinances, and finally be much in prayer for their conversion and salvation.

"5. We promise that we will, by the help of God, avoid all the superstitions and inventions of men in the worship of God, as derogating from the sovereignty and wisdom of the Lord Jesus Christ, the supreme Head of the Church; that we will not scandalously absent ourselves from any part of instituted worship; do what in us lies to prepare ourselves for, uphold, and improve all the ordinances of Christ to the spiritual benefit and advantage of our souls, leaning upon that promise that God will meet those that rejoice and work righteousness, and remember him in his ways.

"6. We promise, by the help of God, that we will, with as much frequency as may be, read or cause the word of God to be read in our families, that so the word of God may dwell richly in us, seasonably and constantly upholding the worship of God there, and attending the same with sincerity and affection.

"7. Whereas we have given up ourselves to the Lord, and to one another in the Lord, we purpose and promise that we will live together in this holy fellowship in all holy watchfulness over each other, to the prevention of or recovery from any scandalous evils that through the temptation of Satan or the corruption of our own natures we may be at any time overtaken with ; that we will be as speedy as may be in making up any difference that may arise, in some orderly way, endeavoring also the spiritual and temporal good one of another.

"8. We promise that by the help of God we will have respect to all the duties enjoined in the second table as being necessary parts of a right ordered conversation, and particularly be true and faithful to all our civil contracts and agreements with one another and all men that we have to deal with, that so none may have occasion to speak evil of our profession.

"9. And finally; whereas there is a strong propensity in our natures to what is evil and sinful, we purpose and promise, that by the help of God's Spirit we will keep our hearts, and mortify those lusts that dwell in us, avoiding all such temptations as our sinful hearts are wont to be drawn aside withal; and, that we may keep this Covenant inviolable forever in all the branches of it, we desire to deny ourselves, not trusting in our own wisdom and strength, humbly and believingly depending upon God in and through Jesus Christ, and the presence of his Holy Spirit with us; and where we come short, there to wait upon him for pardon and healing for his name's sake."

This Covenant was signed by twenty-four brethren, whose names appear in the register as "original members."

SABBATH SCHOOL.

A Sabbath School was organized by members of the Church in May, 1818, and sustained by individual effort until September, 1827, when "The Franklin Sabbath-school Society" was formed. For twenty-five years, the school continued under the direction of this society. In April, 1852, the Church assumed the direction of the Sabbath School, and adopted such rules as were deemed necessary for its management (See S. Sch. Records for Apr., 1852).

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

The persons to be admitted shall present themselves before the pulpit as their names are called, and shall be addressed by the minister as follows: —

Jesus said unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me: for whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall save it: whosoever, therefore, shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven; but whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

In obedience to Christ's command, and as an expression of your love and devotion to Him, you now desire to make public profession of your faith, and to enter into covenant with this Church in doctrine, in fellowship, in duty.

May the blessing of God the Father rest upon you, that the confession you now make may be to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved; for by grace ye are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.

Let a sense of your own weakness teach you your dependence upon God, and lead you to rely upon him for strength to keep these solemn vows, being confident that he who hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

We invite your attention to the Articles of Faith and Covenant.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

1. We believe there is only one true God, the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of the universe, a spirit, infinite in every natural and moral perfection.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God; that they contain a complete and harmonious system of divine truth, and are the only perfect rule of religious faith and practice.

3. We believe God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; and that these three are one, and equal in all divine attributes.

4. We believe God governs all things according to his eternal and infinitely wise purpose, so as to secure his own glory, and the greatest good of the universe; and in perfect consistency with his hatred of sin, the free agency of man, and the importance of the use of means.

5. We believe the law of God, requiring perfect holiness of heart and life, is benevolent and wise, and obligatory as a rule of duty upon all mankind.

6. We believe God created man holy, and that he fell from this state by sinning against God; that, in consequence of the fall, mankind are by nature destitute of holiness, at enmity with God, and so continue until regenerated by the Holy Spirit.

7. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, by his sufferings and death, has made an atonement sufficient for all mankind; that God can now consistently exercise mercy toward sinners, and that he will pardon all who repent and believe in Christ.

8. We believe that in order to salvation the sinner must be born again, and that regeneration is a moral change, produced by the Holy Spirit operating on the mind through the truth, in which the transgressor freely turns from sin to holiness, with fixed purpose to love and serve God forever.

9. We believe justification is of free grace, through faith in the atonement of Christ as the only meritorious cause.

10. We believe all true Christians are the elect of God, and that, though free to fall, they will be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

11. We believe the visible Church of Christ consists of Christians who publicly profess their faith in him, and covenant to walk together in the ordinances of the gospel.

12. We believe in the divine appointment of the Christian sabbath, the gospel ministry, the private and public worship of God, and the sacraments of the New Testament, — baptism and the Lord's supper; that baptism is to be administered only to covenanting believers and their households; and the Lord's supper only to believers in regular standing in some evangelical church.

13. We believe that probation ends at death, and that there is a day appointed in which Christ will raise the dead, and judge the world in righteousness; that all who die impenitent will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

You do now assent to this Confession of Faith.

The ordinance of Baptism is here administered.

COVENANT.

With this public profession of your faith, you will now enter into covenant with God and his Church.

In the presence of God, angels, and men, you solemnly avow the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost to be your God, the object of your supreme affection, and your chosen portion forever. You cordially accept and acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ in all his mediatorial offices of Prophet, Priest, and King, as your only Saviour and final Judge; the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide; and the Bible as your rule of life. You humbly and heartily consecrate yourselves (yourself) to God and his service in an everlasting covenant. You purpose and engage, by divine grace, to obey all his commandments; to give diligent attention to his word and ordinances, to family and secret prayer, and to the observance of the sabbath; that you will seek the honor of his name and the interest of his kingdom; and that henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly in the world.

You also covenant to walk with this Church of Christ in Christian love, fellowship, and faithfulness; to maintain and submit to its scriptural discipline; to co-operate in its measures for the support of the gospel, and contribute of your means to the same according to your ability; and in all things to seek its peace and prosperity while a member of it. In humble dependence upon divine grace for necessary aid, you take upon you these public and solemn vows.

Here the members of the Church will rise.

Most affectionately now do we, the members of this Church, in the name of Jesus Christ, welcome you to this communion, and to all the blessed privileges of children in our Father's house.

We break with you this bread of life. We share with you this cup of blessing. We ask your aid in turning to our Master the souls of men. We covenant with you to hold your peace and welfare dear to us. We promise gladly to render our offices of love; and so far as in us lies, to seek your growth in knowledge and in grace, your sweet experience of Christ's love, and your perfect meetness for the heavenly home.

And now, beloved, we commend you unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge; that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

Parents desiring to bring their children for public baptism are requested to do so, if convenient, on Communion sabbath, at the opening of the afternoon service. They are also requested to give the pastor seasonable notice of their intention, together with the child's name and date of birth, and the names of both parents, all written in full.

ADDRESS TO PARENTS.

In presenting your child for baptism, you profess to dedicate him (her) to God, and you do hereby enter into covenant with God to be faithful in your parental relations. You promise to pray for and with this child, to instruct him (her) in the doctrines and duties of our holy religion as revealed and enjoined in God's word. You engage to set an example of godliness and piety before him (her), and to endeavor by all the means of God's appointment to secure his (her) salvation.

These things you faithfully promise, relying upon divine grace to grant the regenerating influence of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus said, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

STANDING RULES.

I. POLITY.

This Church receives all its authority from the word of God, and is competent to exercise that authority independent of any other ecclesiastical body, so far as relates to its internal organization, the administration of gospel ordinances, the choice and installation of its officers, the admission, discipline, and removal of its members. Its relation to other churches is that of fellowship and communion, according to established congregational principles.

II. OFFICERS.

The permanent officers of the Church are the pastor or pastors, and deacons.

In addition to these, this Church shall choose annually, by ballot, a clerk, treasurer, and a committee of three; which committee, with the permanent officers, shall constitute an examining committee.

III. DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

1. The pastor shall be a member of this Church, and shall preside as moderator at its business meetings.

2. The deacons shall serve the Church in the administration of the Lord's supper; shall perform any occasional or stated service that may be assigned by the Church; shall aid the pastor generally in the spiritual care of the flock; and, in the absence of the pastor, shall preside, according to seniority, at the business meetings of the Church.

3. The clerk shall keep all the records of the Church, forward all letters of dismission and recommendation, and make an annual report. The records shall include all business transactions of the Church; also a register, in tabular form, of all baptisms, admissions, and removals. The annual report shall give the number of members in the Church, male and female; the number and manner of additions and removals during the year; also a list of all non-resident members, their present residences so far as may be known, and any information concerning them which he may deem it important to communicate.

4. The treasurer shall have charge of all money received by contribution or otherwise; shall disburse the same as directed by vote of the Church or by the examining committee; and shall make an annual report in writing.

5. The examining committee shall audit the treasurer's account; propose to the Church at the annual meeting a schedule of objects for the monthly collections for the ensuing year; have the special care of church-discipline; and shall examine and recommend candidates for admission to the Church.

IV. CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP.

1. Persons desiring to unite with this Church by profession shall be required to give satisfactory evidence of conversion; shall present either a written or verbal statement of their Christian experience; shall assent to the articles of belief; and shall promise to work for Christ so long as they are members.

2. Persons desiring to unite with this Church by letter shall make a brief statement of their Christian experience, and shall give public assent to the articles of faith and covenant.

3. Candidates for admission shall stand propounded at least two weeks; and, if approved by vote of the Church at a regular meeting, shall be received at the following communion.

4. Members who are absent for one year or more are expected to ask for a letter of recommendation to some evangelical church in the vicinity of their present residence, or to forward to the clerk in writing good reasons for not doing so. Letters of dismission given or received by us shall be valid for one year only from their date.

5. Members of other Congregational churches who may desire to commune with us for more than one year are expected to unite with us by letter, unless there be special reasons for delay.

V. DISCIPLINE.

1. The occasions of discipline are of two kinds: private, as wrong done to an individual; and public, as wrong done to the Church by immoral conduct, or cherished disbelief of the articles of faith to which the members have assented, or continued neglect of covenant obligations.

2. The rules given by Christ in Matt. xviii. 15–17 are to be followed by members of the Church in all cases of private offence; and the spirit of these rules is to govern all disciplinary action.

3. Whenever any member is guilty of a public offence, it is the duty of any other member who has a knowledge of the facts to seek, according to the preceding rule, to bring such an one to repentance; and, if neglected by others, it shall be the special duty of the examining committee.

4. When the private steps have not been successful, the complaint, in a definite charge or charges, with the names of the witnesses, shall be presented to the Church in writing through the examining committee. A copy of the same shall also be presented to the offending member, at least two weeks previous to the day appointed for his trial before the Church.

5. The extent of discipline shall be private reproof, public admonition, temporary suspension from Church privileges, or excommunication, according to the nature and aggravation of the offence.

6. An excommunicated person may not be restored except upon a public confession of his sin, a profession of repentance, and a reformation of his conduct.

VI. BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS.

1. There shall be a monthly collection in the congregation for such objects as shall be decided upon at the annual meeting. Unless circumstances prevent, this collection shall be taken on the third sabbath afternoon of each month.

2. There shall be a collection for foreign missions at every monthly concert, and another for contingent expenses and for the poor of the Church at every communion season or preparatory lecture, the latter to be at the disposal of the deacons of the Church.

VII. CHURCH NOTICES.

1. The annual Church meeting for the choice of officers, and the transaction of other business, is held on the first Monday of January, at 11 o'clock, A.M.

2. The sacrament of the Lord's supper is administered on the afternoon of the first sabbath of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

3. The meeting for the preparatory lecture is held on the Thursday preceding each Communion sabbath, at 2 o'clock, P.M.

4. A church meeting for conference, prayer, and business is held on the last Thursday of each alternate month, beginning with February, at 2 o'clock, P.M.

5. A monthly concert of prayer for missions is held on the first sabbath evening of each month.

6. The sabbath-school concert is held on the second sabbath evening of each month.

7. A social prayer-meeting is held in the lecture room every Friday evening.

8. From October 1 to April 1, the evening meetings will commence at 7½ o'clock; through the remainder of the year at a quarter before eight.

9. The sabbath services commence at 10½ A.M., 1½ P.M., and at 7 in the evening from October to April; at 7½ from April to October.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

One volume allowed at a time, and obtained only by card; to be kept 14 days (or seven days in the case of fiction and juvenile books published within one year) without fine; not to be renewed; to be reclaimed by messenger after 21 days, who will collect 20 cents besides fine of 2 cents a day, including Sundays and holidays; not to be lent out of the borrower's household, and not to be transferred; to be returned at this Hall.

Borrowers finding this book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; and also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

 No claim can be established because of the failure of any notice, to or from the Library, through the mail.

The record below must not be made or altered by borrower.
